The Quad States Region of Gamma Phi Delta Sorority, Inc. is encompassed of: Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Louisiana.

Quad States was organized under Supreme Basileus Luthermae E. Adams and held their first Regional Conference in Fort Worth, Texas April 26-27, 1972. Soror Thelma Gordon was the Regional Director.

Quad States hosted the 58th Biennial Boulé in Dallas, Texas at the Dallas Marriott Quorum, July 2014, with the theme of the "Wild, Wild West for the Supremes' Felicitate party. Sorors wore their pink or blue cowboy hats and boots and danced to the cotton-eyed Joe. Project Hope, which is a non-profit organization in Dallas Texas was the recipient of a monetary award from the organization.

The Sorors of the Quality Quad States prides themselves on giving back to our different communities to organizations that work with the underprivileged citizens. During the 2013 and 2015 Regional Conferences, monetary donations were provided to local non-profit organizations in the host cities that assist HBCU's as well as an organization that provides food and shelter to homeless individuals and families. During the 2017 32nd Biennial Regional Conferences, Sorors of Quad States continued being philanthropist and donated monetarily to the Habitat for Humanity of Smith County, Tyler Texas.

Chapters of the Quad States are active in providing assistance to the different communities in which they are located by giving scholarships to graduating high school students, donating money to homeless shelters to assist with meals, proving financial donations as well as clothing items to shelters for battered women and children, donating backpacks and other school supplies to local elementary schools and donating wraps to nursing homes for the elderly residents. The Chapters also were represented during MLK day parades, heart health day and Founder's Day activities.

Sorors of Quad States continue annually to donate to their different communities. During the 2016-2017 Sorority year, chapters assisted area food banks with “Backpack” meals for kids. This program ensures that students who are on the free meal plan at their different schools are provided with nutritious meals over the week-end. Nutritious meals are provided each Friday to students to take home. The back packs are returned each Monday to be refilled.

Quad States is honored to have two Past Supreme Officers: Sorors Helen Jones, Past Supreme 2nd Anti-Basileus, Katie Broughton, Past Supreme 2nd Anti-Basileus and Past Supreme Grammateus. Past Regional Directors: Sorors Lottie Wheeler, Ruth Shaw, Shirley Tolliver-Porter, Wanda Cameese-Ottman, Helen Jones, Better Jo Mitchell, Irene Toliver, Katie Broughton and Earline Franklin.
